1.	Educational Leadership Master's Degree Program and Licensure only Program	The educational leadership degree program is for teachers who hold at least a Collegiate Professional license or equivalent from another state, have taught successfully for at least two years, and wish to pursue a career in school administration. Students are provided preparation for administrative and/or supervisory roles in public and private schools.	Region 8 experiences a constant demand for school building leadership. According to superintendents, the turnover rate for building leaders, especially at the secondary level, is significant and has an impact on their school programs. CEHS's program has been revamped to meet the needs of the region.	Amelia, Appomattox, Buckingham, Brunswick, Charlotte, Cumberland, Greenville, Halifax, Lunenburg, Mecklenburg, Nottoway, and Prince Edward superintendents or their representatives have all dialogued with Dr. Gerry Sokol, program coordinator for CEHS.
